“We saw becoming a Lippmann dealer as a great opportunity to increase our offering to our customer base in New England,” Comments Brendan Fox. “And with the same customer-centric philosophy as our own, together we will ensure our customers are always satisfied.”

“We’re excited to be partnering with Lippmann, an American company that has been providing crushing solutions for its customers since 1923,” adds Shane Fleming. “It’s not every day you have the opportunity to work with a 100-year old organization.”
